INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC SUMMIT

TEACHER TRAINING & STUDENT EVENT 2010 SHANGHAI, CHINA

International Economic Summit Institute at Boise State University

The International Economic Summit Institute at Boise State University is inviting a limited number of high school and university teachers to participate in a Teacher Training Workshop, followed by an International Economic Summit Student Event, in Shanghai China.

- The Teacher Training Workshop will be March 13 – 14, 2010 at Xiang Ming High School in Shanghai.
- The subsequent International Economic Summit student event will be June 13, 2010, also in Shanghai.

Information about the Summit Program

- Please see the attached “Executive Briefing” for a full explanation of the Summit Program, including its goals, history and how it is implemented.
- Please also refer to the Website at www.econsummit.org , which includes a video and written materials on the Summit program.

Teacher Training Workshop – Shanghai March 13 – 14, 2010

The International Economic Summit is an educational program for high school and university students. The program includes the Teacher Handbook, Student Handbook, Classroom Mini-Summit Kit, large Regional Summit Kit, Summit Website, Teacher Training Workshop, the Summit Student Event and all the processes, instructions and intellectual property associated with operating this program.

The Teacher Training Workshop on March 13 – 14, 2010 will provide materials and training to teachers interested in introducing the Summit program in their own schools and, especially, to those teachers interested in bringing student teams to the Shanghai International Economic Summit on June 13, 2010 in Shanghai.

The International Economic Summit Student Event – Shanghai June 13, 2010

The Summit event on June 13, 2010 will include approximately 500 students, divided into 100 country teams. The event will be hosted by Xiang Ming High School in Shanghai and facilitated by Boise State University. In order for teams to participate in the Summit, the teacher must have received the training and materials provided at the March 13 – 14 Teacher Training Workshop.
